

Current questions in LGBTQ+ psychology

Conference of Hungarian Psychological Association

LGBTQ division

program

Day 1 - 11 May 2018 Friday

08.00-09.00 Registration

Opening speeches (conference room)

09.00-09.10 HPA President's opening speech, Enikő Kiss, president of Hungarian Psychological Association

09.10-09.20 Greeting, introduction to the history of the LGBTQ division, Andrea Ritter, division president of LGBTQ, Hungarian Psychological Association

09.20-09.30 Presenting the conference, Ádám Németh, conference organizer

Plenary presentations (conference room, 09.30-13.45)

Theoretical and therapeutic bases - chair: Andrea Ritter

09.30-10.00 Julianna Lászlóffy: Theoretical and therapeutic basis of LMBTQ psychology in adolescence and young adulthood

10.00-10.30 Ádám Németh: Introduction to LGBTQ+ affirmative therapeutic approach – basic concepts, relevance and main aspects in helping profession

10.30-11.30 Matthew D. Skinta: Specializing in LGBT Psychotherapy: The Importance of Incorporating Research into Practice

11.30-12.00 Coffee break

12.00-12.45 Eszter Tímár: What to do with queer?

12.45-13.45 Experiences of low threshold helping services with LGBTQ+ clients (Háttér Társaság a melegéért, Információs- és Lelkisegély Szolgálat, Kék Vonal Gyermekkrízis Alapítvány, Lelkisegély Vonal, Anonim AIDS Tanácsadó Szolgálat, Karolina Rendelő, PIPA Alapítvány, LDBT Mediation)

13.45-15.00 Lunch break

Section presentations (15.00-16.30)

Section A Fields of LGBTQ psychology (room 160)

chair: Mária Hoyer

15.00-15.30 Anna Borgos: Mother roles in rainbow families

15.30-16.00 Krisztián Rózsa: Intersectionality in practice: psychological helping profession with LGBTQ+ asylum seekers, refugees and migrants

16.00-16.30 Katalin Ráhel Turai: Bisexuality: social and societal perspectives.

Section B Modern approaches (room 96)

chair: Julianna Lászlóffy

15.00-15.30 Dóra Máriási, Katalin Vida: Feminist aspects in psychological work

15.30-16.00 Gábor Kuszing: Feminist additions to work with LGBTQ+ people

16.00-16.30 Sári Halász: Impacts of mainstream pornography on life and sexuality of lesbian women

16.30-17.00 Coffee break

Closing event of the day

17.00-18.30 Introduction of Hungarian NGOs (Labrisz, Háttér, Transzvanilla, Mozaik, LMBTQ szülők, vidéki LGBT szervezetek, Szeged, Debrecen, Pécs, Miskolc, Keresztények a melegekért)

12 May 2018 Saturday

Plenary presentations (conference room, 09.00-13.30)

Adaptation and application of the APA LGBTQ guides in two countries

chair: Ádám Németh

09.00-09.45 Katalin Lányi, Anikó Hazag: Guidelines of working with gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and nonconformist clients

09.45-10.45 Juan Nel: Psychology Providing Leadership in Advancing Understanding of Sexual and Gender Diversity

10.45-11.00 Coffee break

Non-heterosexual and/or non-cisgender identities – education, health and special challenges

section chair: Ádám Németh

11.00-11.45 András Költő: LGBTQ+ health paradox

11.45-12.30 Krisztina Hevesi: Sex-education among LGBT youngsters

12.30-13.15 Tamás Bereczky: BB, PrEP, chems, P'n'P, slam - What are these men doing?!

13.30-15.00 Lunch break

Section presentations 15.00-16.30

Section A Helping families - aspects, specific challenges (room 160)

chair: Anna Borgos

15.00-15.30 Csilla Faix Prukner: Affirmative couples- and family-therapy approach in work with LGBTQ couples and rainbow families

15.30-16.00 Mária Hoyer: Family crises and gender role changes

16.00-16.30 Éva Horváth: How to recognize relationship violence in LGBT relationships and how to help?

Section B Clinical and therapeutic excerpts from the field of transgender (room 96) chair: ?

15.00-15.30 Krisztina Németh: Gender nonconformity and autism spectrum disorder

15.30-16.00 Karola Főglein: Psychological work with transgender people

16.00-16.30 István Berkes, Andrea Ritter, Barnabás Hidasi: Parents and their transgender children – a thematic group presentation

16.30-17.00 Coffee break

Workshops and playback theatre (17.00-18.30)

Workshop A (room..) Julianna Lászlóffy, Ádám Németh: Steps toward the affirmative helping attitude – presenting a self-knowledge practice Workshop B (room..) Andrea Ritter, Mária Nóra Joó: Rainbow colored paths...LGBTQ cases (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer people) case discussion and supervision workshop for helping experts

LGBTQ realities...playback theatre (room 160)

18.30-19.00 Conference closing (room 96) moderated by: Andrea Ritter and Ádám Németh

All day long: introduction of NGOs with stands